Introduction to Clinical Research Module 4: Part 1 & Part 2 page 1 of 1

Please complete this quiz by recording your answers on the answer sheet provided.

_____

Contact Theresa.kenney2@cchmc.org with any questions.

Questions for Module 4 parts 1&2: Daniels and Jobe Peer-Reviewed Publications

- 1. Most reviews of manuscripts are partially blinded because:
  - a. The reviewers know who the authors are but the authors do not know who the reviewers are.
  - b. The reviewers do not know who the authors are but the authors know the identity of the reviewers
  - c. The reviewers and authors know of each other's identity
  - d. Both the reviewers and authors are blinded to each other's identity.
- 2. A paper may be editorially rejected without review because:
  - a. Science is obviously unsound
  - b. The paper does not contain new or novel information
  - c. The writing is poor
  - d. Subject matter is not appropriate for journal.
  - e. All the above
- 3. Once a manuscript is accepted by most journals, ownership or copyright is transferred by the authors to the journal.
  - a. True
  - b. False
- 4. The title of an article should contain:
  - a. Type of study (e.g. randomized, control trial, cohort, etc)
  - b. Human or animal species studied
  - c. General content of work (e.g. disease)
  - d. Technique used if appropriate (e.g. imaging, psychometric testing)
  - e. All the above
- 5. Which of the following is most important for organizing the material in preparation for writing a paper?
  - a. A clear hypothesis
  - b. Statistical analysis of the data
  - c. A good knowledge of the background material
  - d. An awareness of the problems with the data