

Review of DSM Criteria

- Presence of ADHD symptoms
- Presence of symptom-associated impairment
- Evidence of symptoms and impairment being present:
 - For more than six months
 - Prior to age seven years
 - In two or more settings (home and school)
- Symptoms and impairment cannot be better accounted for by some other physical, educational or mental health condition