

Utility of Prenatal Array in Greater Cincinnati

Roundtable Discussion

When have you ordered prenatal array?

- Indications
- Specific patient characteristics
- Patient understanding of the technology

What is important when discussing testing with patients?

- How is utility of test presented?
- How do you discuss the reasons for parental testing?
- What tools would be helpful for counseling when discussing array with patients?

How important is turn around time?

- What is the maximum acceptable turn around time?
- Are there clinical reasons why TAT might need to be shorter in some cases?

What are some of your concerns regarding prenatal array?

- Counseling of patients on risk/clinical implications?
- Is there enough data to support use of this technology routinely?
- What are some of the answers you are looking for related to prenatal array?

What tools are needed?

- Educational aids for counseling patients pre-test?
 - What content is important?
- Access to geneticists/genetic counselors for pre-test counseling?
- Access to laboratory geneticists and counselors for aid in interpretation?
- Educational aids for explaining results to patients?

What Else?