

Cincinnati Children's Hospital Medical Center

Genetics Residency Training Opportunities

HIGHLIGHTS

- Excellent teaching, learning, and research experience at one of the nation's top pediatric medical centers
 - Second highest NIH funded pediatric medical center
 - Consistently in the top ten pediatric medical centers nationally
- Fellowships available in biochemical genetics, molecular genetics, and cytogenetics

Residency Director:

Robert Hopkin, M.D.
3333 Burnet Avenue
MLC 4006
Cincinnati, OH 45229
513-636-4315
Genetics.training@cchmc.org

Residency Positions Include:

2-year Human Genetics Fellowship

5-year Combined Pediatrics & Human Genetics Residency

