

Glucose tolerance and measurements

For glucose tolerance tests, D-glucose (2 mg/g of body weight) is intraperitoneally injected into overnight fasted mice, and glucose levels are monitored at 0, 15, 30, and 60 min after injection by retro orbital bleeding using an Accu-Chek glucometer (Roche Diagnostics Corp., Indianapolis, Indiana, USA).